Red Arrows Association Membership GDPR Consent Agreement

Background.

The Red Arrows Association (RAA) needs to capture, record and store certain personal data from each of its members.

The reason the RAA needs to do this is to manage membership & subscriptions, communicate to the membership on events, and on occasions to consult the membership on the performance of the RAA.

To comply with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) the RAA requires that each member provides their 'opt in' consent allowing the RAA to capture, record and store this data. More information is contained within the Privacy Statement, which is attached.

Once given, a member can withdraw their consent at any time.

The RAA will ask for consent from the whole membership, on an individual basis, if the use of this data changes.

What personal data will the RAA collect?

- personal information:
  - name – mandatory
  - address – mandatory
  - bank sort code – mandatory
  - account number – mandatory
  - dates on the team – mandatory
  - telephone number – voluntary
  - email address – voluntary
  - roles held on the team - voluntary

The RAA needs this data in order to:

- verify service on the Royal Air Force Aerobatic Team, the Red Arrows
- manage the RAA membership and subscription renewals
- enable the RAA to organize events
- inform the RAA membership of events being organized
- inform the RAA membership of news items
- post memorabilia and other information to members
- canvass the views of member

How do you give your consent?

By completing this application form to join the Red Arrows Association and returning it to the Secretary to action, you are giving your consent to the RAA to collect your personal data as described above, and agreeing that you fully understand what your data will be used for. You also agree that you fully understand you can opt out of this agreement at any time in the future by writing to the Secretary cancelling your RAA membership. Should you require further information, please contact the Secretary, who will be pleased to help. Thank you.
